Explanatory Notes

- This achievement standard is derived from the second Level 6 Economics achievement objective of the Social Sciences learning area in The New Zealand Curriculum, Learning Media, Ministry of Education, 2007, and is related to material in the Teaching and Learning Guide for Economics, Ministry of Education, 2010 at <http://seniorsecondary.tki.org.nz/>.

This standard is also derived from Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. For details of Te Marautanga o Aotearoa achievement objectives to which this standard relates, see the Papa Whakaako.

- Definitions:
Interdependence refers to the two-way relationships that exist between different sectors.

Sectors of the New Zealand economy refer to the household, producer (primary, secondary and tertiary), financial, government, and overseas sectors.

3 Demonstrate understanding would typically involve:

- identifying, defining or describing sectors and flows
- providing an explanation of how or why sectors are interdependent
- providing an explanation of the impact of an event on a sector and/or the flow-on effects to other sectors
- constructing an economic model (e.g. to show interdependence, the effect of an event on a sector, or flow-on effects to other sectors).

Demonstrate in-depth understanding would typically involve:

- providing a detailed explanation of how or why sectors are interdependent, using an economic model
- providing a detailed explanation of the impact of an event on a sector and/or the flow-on effects to other sectors, using an economic model.

Demonstrate comprehensive understanding would typically involve:

- providing a detailed explanation of how or why sectors are interdependent, using an economic model
- linking detailed explanations of the impact of an event on a sector with detailed explanations of the flow-on effects to other sectors, using an economic model.
