Folk songs are passed down from generation to generation through singing and listening. The common folk sing the songs to their children instead of writing them down. The original composers were forgotten as time passed and the words and places changed. These changes left many versions of the same song. Big Rock Candy Mountain originated in the late 1800's and was attributed to Harry "Haywire Mac" McClintock. The ballad tells of a hobo's life, riding the trains and traveling the country, in search of the perfect place for a "burly bum" to live.

Boritone ROYAL CROWN MARCH

1 Moderato

The musical score is written for a Boritone instrument in 4/4 time, marked Moderato. It consists of 64 measures across nine staves. The dynamics are marked as follows: f (measures 1-4), mf (measures 5-12), p (measures 21-24), mf (measures 29-30), f (measures 38-44), mf (measures 45-50), and f (measures 61-64). Measure numbers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 9, 10, 11, 12, 9, 13, 14, 15, 16, 9, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 9, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 9, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 9, 49, 50, 51, 52, 9, 53, 54, 55, 56, 9, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64 are indicated above the notes. The score begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The music features a steady, accented beat characteristic of a march.

The history of the march has its beginnings in the military. Marches have a steady beat that is strongly accented. This beat was helpful for soldiers to stay in step. Many marches were written to commemorate a regal occasion such as the crowning of a king. It was with this in mind that Royal Crown March was composed.

Franz Joseph Haydn (b.1732 - d.1809) was an Austrian composer who worked as the court composer for the royal Esterhazy family for over thirty years. "Papa Haydn," best known for his numerous symphonies and string quartets, also trained and conducted the other court musicians. A Classical Canon was originally called the Nightingale Canon. Words were added later describing children's anticipation to stay up on Christmas Eve while the parent sang for the children to go to bed. The title then became commonly known as the Christmas Eve Canon.

George Frideric Handel (b.1685 - d.1759) was a popular German composer who traveled widely throughout his life and settled in England. The English royalty paid him well for his many compositions. The Music for the Royal Fireworks, written in 1749, originally called for a huge ensemble of brass, woodwinds, timpani, and a cannon. Handel wrote the piece to accompany a fireworks celebration for the King of England. Just as the music began, the fireworks exploded accidentally. In spite of the accident, Handel's piece was a great success.

Blues music evolved throughout the early 20th century. "Boogie-woogie," a popular style developed during this time, was normally played at a fast tempo, had a repeated melodic pattern in the bass (called a "walking bass"), swinging eighth notes, and a series of improvised variations in the upper melody.

“Rock and Roll” was a phrase used by disk jockey, Allan Freed, in the early 1950’s. He wanted to attract teenagers to his Rhythm and Blues concerts. The name caught on and rock and roll replaced American “pop” music. Rock music has a heavy dance beat with strong accents on beats 2 and 4 and lyrics that relate well to young people.
